vi) to offer its know-how and facilities to universities and other academic institutions in this field;

vii) to interact on a continuing basis at the national level to improve standards of teaching of history of art, conservation, museology, archaeology, archival studies and the like; to give academic guidance and provide leadership, as and when required, and to ensure that the resources of the National Museum, Archaeological Survey of India, Anthropological Survey of India, National Gallery of Modern Art, National Archives and other such institutions are also made available to them; viii) to publish such works of the Institute as may have contributed substantially to the fields of specialisation;

ix) to visualise, plan and prepare educational kits and software for audio-visual education in art and culture for all levels of teaching; and

x) to do all such other lawful acts and things as may be necessary for or conducive to furthering the objectives of setting up the Institute as a centre of study and research.

4. Powers and Functions
To carry out the objects mentioned above and for the management of the Institute, the Society shall have the following powers and functions:

i) to formulate and administer courses of study and research and to provide instruction in areas of study as the Institute deems appropriate for the advancement of learning and dissemination of knowledge in those areas;

ii) to confer degrees upon and to grant diplomas/certificates to persons who have satisfactorily completed approved courses of study and/or research and have passed the examinations as may be prescribed;

iii) to create and award honours, fellowships, scholarships, prizes and medals in recognition of merit in accordance with Rules as may be prescribed;

iv) to undertake, in collaboration with the concerned authorities, field work in art, archaeology, archival studies, anthropology, museology and conservation of cultural property; and

v) to develop innovative methods of examination for the award of certificates, degrees and diplomas without diluting the academic norms prescribed by the University Grants Commission from time to time;

vi) to deposit all monies credited to the Fund in such banks or to invest in such a manner as the Institute may, with the approval of Central Government, decide;

vii) to draw, make, accept, endorse and discount cheques, notes or other negotiable instruments and for this purpose, to sign, execute and deliver such assurances and deeds as may be necessary for the purpose of the Institute; viii) to pay out of the funds belonging to the Institute or out of any particular part of such funds, the expenses incurred by the Institute from time to time including all expenses incidental to the formation of the Institute and management and administration of any of the foregoing objectives including all rents, rates, taxes and salaries of the employees;

ix) to give pensions, gratuities or charitable aid to the staff and employees or their legal heirs;

x) to make payment towards insurance and to form and contribute to the provident and benefit funds for employees and their dependents;

xi) to acquire, hold and dispose of property in any manner for purposes of the Institute, provided that prior approval of the Central Government is obtained in cases of the acquisition and disposal of immovable property;

xii) to borrow and raise monies with prior approval of the Central Government for purposes of the Institute; xiii) to build, construct and maintain houses, hostels or other buildings and modify the same with light, water, drainage, furniture, fittings, instruments, appliances and other things in connection with the objects of the Institute;

xiv) to appoint the Board of Management, committees or sub-committees as it may deem fit to carry out the objects of the Institute;

xv) to delegate any or all its powers to the Board of Management, Academic Council or to any of the committees or sub-committees constituted by it;

xvi) to make, add, vary or amend Rules, Regulations and Bye-laws with prior approval of the Central Government for the conduct of the affairs of the Institute from time to time.

5. Interpretation of the Objects

The Society shall be established for public benefit and accordingly the objects of the Society as set forth above shall be interpreted and restricted to mean such objects and purposes regarded in law as necessary for public education and charitable purposes.

6. Institute open to all

i) The Institute to be set up shall be open to all citizens of India of either sex, and of all race, creed, caste or class and no test or condition shall be imposed upon as to religious belief or profession in admitting or appointing members, students, teachers, workers or in any other connection whatsoever.

ii) Admission to its courses shall be as prescribed in the Rules.

iii) The Society may invite or appoint Indian and foreign scholars for teaching in the Institute as may be prescribed in the Rules.

7. Income and Funds

I The Society shall be a registered autonomous body fully funded by the Department of Culture, Government of India.

II It will administer funds as per the following guidelines:

- to maintain a fund to which shall be credited:
  i) all funds provided by the Central Government;
  ii) all fees and charges received by the Institute;
  iii) all monies received by the Institute by way of grants, gifts, donations, benefactions, bequests or transfers.

III The income of the Society, derived from Government grants shall be applied towards the promotion of the objects as set forth in this Memorandum of Association subject to such conditions or limitations as the Central Government may from time to time impose. However, flexibility shall be allowed in respect of emoluments and other service conditions of teaching staff appointed as Professors and technical experts, etc., against Chairs financed out of Endowments in order to attract the best talents, and on expenditure out of the funds received as a donation or a Special Grant for a specific purpose to create auxiliary facilities for the Institute in order to achieve... and maintain the highest professional standards.

IV No benefactions shall be accepted by the Society or Institute which in their opinion involves conditions and obligations opposed to the spirit and object of the Society.

8. Income not to be paid or transferred by way of profit

   No portion of the income of the Society shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of profit, to the persons, who at any time have been members of the Society or to any of them or to any person claiming through them or any of them, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the payment in good faith or remuneration to any member thereof or other person in return for any service rendered to the Society or for travelling, halting and other similar charges.

9. Power to issue Directives

   The Central Government shall have the power to issue such directives as it may consider necessary from time to time to the Society or the Institute for the purpose of carrying out or achieving the objectives set out in the Memorandum of Association and Rules.

10. Review and Inspection

    The Central Government may appoint one or more persons to review or inspect the working and progress of the Society and/or Institute and to hold enquiries into the affairs thereof and to report thereon and in such manner as the Central Government may decide. The Central Government, upon receipt of such report, may take such action and issue such directions as it may consider necessary in respect of any of the matters dealt with in the report and the Society or the Institute, as the case may be, shall comply with such directions.

11. Take over

    If the Central Government is satisfied that the Society or the Institute is not functioning properly, it shall have the power to take over the administration and assets of the Society and/or the Institute as the case may be.

12. Dissolution

    If, on the winding up or dissolution of the Society, there shall remain, after the satisfaction of its debts and liabilities, any property, the same shall not be paid to any member of the Society or distributed amongst them but shall be disposed of in the manner as the Central Government may determine.

13. Documents

    All lease, properties, documents and title deeds relating to the properties, movable and immovable, of the Society shall be in the name of the Society.

14. Rules and Regulation

    A copy of the Rules of the Society certified to be a correct copy by seven members of the Society is filed along with the Memorandum of Association; and the composition of the Society, the supreme authority, shall be as referred to in Rule 4 thereof.
We, the several persons whose names and addresses are given below, having associated ourselves for the purpose described in the Memorandum of Association, do hereby subscribe our names to the Memorandum of Association and set our several and respective hands hereunto and form ourselves into a Society under Societies of Registration Act (Act XXII) of 1860 this day Nineteen Hundred Eighty Nine at Delhi.

c) The Finance Officer shall work under the supervision of the Vice-chancellor and in his absence under the Director and will be accountable to the Board of Management through the Vice-chancellor. He shall be the ex-officio non-member Secretary of the Finance Committee.

d) Subject to the control of the appropriate Authority of the Institute, he shall be responsible for the preparation of the Annual Estimates and Statement of Accounts for submission to the Finance Committee, the Board of Management and the Society.

15. Seniority list
   i) Whenever, in accordance with the Rules, any person is to hold an office or to be a member of an Authority of the Institute, by rotation, according to the seniority, such seniority shall be determined according to the Bye-laws applicable to such persons and in accordance with such other principles as may be laid down in the Bye-laws from time to time.

   ii) It shall be duty of the Registrar to prepare and maintain in respect of each class of persons to whom the provisions of these Rules apply, a complete and up-to-date seniority list and other Service Records in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing clause.

16. Delegation of powers
   Subject to the provisions of these Rules and Bye-laws any Authority/Officer of the Institute may delegate its/his power/powers to any other Authority/Official under its/his respective control and subject to the conditions that the overall responsibility for exercise of the powers so delegated shall continue to rest with the Authority/Officer delegating such power.

17. Dispute as to membership
   If any question arises, whether any person has been duly elected or appointed or is entitled to be a member of any Authority or any Committee of the Institute, the matter shall be referred to the Chairman whose decision thereon shall be final.
18. The right of the Central Government to inspect the Institute
   i) The Government of India shall have the right to cause an inspection to be made by such person as it may direct, of the Institute, laboratories and equipments and such, as also examinations, teaching and other work carried on or done by the Institute and, if necessary, to cause an inquiry to be made in respect of any matter connected with the administration or finance of the Institute.
   ii) The Government of India, shall, in every case, give notice of 15 days to the Institute of its intention to cause an inspection or inquiry to be made and on receipt of such a notice the Institute shall have the right to make such representation to the Government of India as it may consider necessary.
   iii) Where an inspection or inquiry has been caused to be made by the Central Government the Institute shall be entitled to appoint a representative who shall have the right to be present and to be heard at such inspection or inquiry.
   iv) The Central Government may communicate the result of such inspection or inquiry together with such advice as it may be pleased to offer as to the action to be taken by the Society or the Vice-chairman who shall place the same before the Board of Management and shall communicate the same to the Chairman of the Society.
   v) The Society shall give proper consideration to the said communication regarding the result of inspection or inquiry and the proposals for action by the Institute and communicate to the Central Government within 60 days of the receipt of such communication the action, if any, which it proposes to take or has taken upon the result of such inspection or inquiry.
   vi) Where the Society fails to communicate, within the aforesaid period or after such communication to the Vice-chairman, fails to take any action to the satisfaction of the Central Government, the Central Government may, after giving due consideration to the communication furnished or representation made by the Society of the Institute to it, issue such directions as it may think fit and the Society of the Institute shall comply with such directions.

19. Review of the Academic activities of the Institute
The academic activities of the Institute may be reviewed by the Board of Management of the Institute after 5 years and the report shall be submitted to the Chairman who shall cause it to be considered in a meeting of the Society and forward it to the Central Government.

xi) the creation, composition and functions of any Committee or Body which is considered necessary for the work of the Institute.

xii) the preparation and submission of budget estimates, annual financial statements, annual audits and reports; xiii) the procedure for convening of meetings of any Authority or Committee;

xiv) the laying down of procedure to be observed at any meeting of any Authority or any Committee; and

xv) all other matters which by this Memorandum of Association or the Rules may be provided for the Bye-laws, provided that no Bye-laws shall be made affecting the discipline of students, admission or enrolment of students, conditions, mode of appointment or duties of examiners or the conduct or standard of examinations or any course of study without consulting the Academic Council.

26. Interpretation clause

In the event of conflict of opinion with regard to interpretation of the Rules and Bye-laws, the opinion of the Board of Management shall prevail. As regards the Memorandum of Association, the question shall be referred to the Chairman who in consultation with the Central Government shall take a decision which shall be final.

27. Bar on payment or transfer of the income of the Institute by way of profits

No portion of the income of the Institute shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise by way of profit to the persons who were at any time or are members of the Institute or to any of them or any person claiming through them or any of them, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the payment, in good faith, of remuneration as consideration for any service rendered to the Institute or for travelling or other allowances and such other charges.

28. Legal proceedings

i) For the purpose of Section 6 of the Societies Registration Act XXI, 1860, the person in whose name the Institute may sue or be sued shall be the Registrar.

ii) No suit or legal proceedings shall lie against the Central Government or University Grants Commission or the Institute or an Officer of the Institute or a Member of the Authority or Committee of the Institute in respect of anything done or purported or intended to be done in pursuance of any article of the Memorandum of Association or the Rule or Bye-laws made thereunder.

29. Dissolution

If upon dissolution of the Society under Section 13 of the Societies Registration Act XXI, 1860 as amended from time to time, there shall remain after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among members of the Society. Such property shall be given to the Central Government to be utilised for any purpose it may determine.

30. Alterations, Amendments and Additions in the Rules

Subject to the provisions of the Societies Registration Act XXI of 1860, the Society may alter or extend the purposes for which it is established with the prior approval of the Central Government. The Rules and Bye-laws of the Institute may be altered, amended and added by a Resolution passed by a majority of the members of the Society present at any meeting of the Society duly convened and held for the purpose and shall become effective after approval of the Central Government. However, the amendments shall become effective only after they are duly registered with the Registrar of Societies.

31. Funds, Accounts, Audits and Annual Report

i) The income of the Institute, howsoever derived, shall be utilised solely for promoting the objects of the Institute as set forth in the Memorandum of Association.

ii) The accounts of the Institute shall be maintained in the name of the Institute and not in the name of a particular Trust or Society financing or sponsoring the Institute.

iii) The accounts of the Institute shall be kept in such forms as may be laid down by the Board of Management and shall conform to the rules, if any, prescribed by the University Grants Commission/the Central Government.

iv) The accounts of the Institute will be open to examination and audit by the Comptroller and Auditor General of the Government of India.

v) All funds belonging to the Institute or under the control of the Board of Management shall be shown separately in the accounts of the Institute.

vi) Annual Reports and the Audit Reports shall be submitted to the Central Government within the prescribed period of the closure of the accounting year for the purpose of being laid on the Table of the Houses of Parliament.

32. All provisions of the Societies Registration Act (XXI of 1860) as extended to the Union Territory of Delhi shall apply to the Society. Soon after the Annual General Meeting, a list of members of the Society shall be forwarded to the Registrar of Societies.

33. Transitory Provisions

Notwithstanding anything contained herein:

i) All the officers and functionaries of the Institute shall continue to function in their respective capacities till such appointments are made in accordance with the provisions of the Rules and Bye-laws.

ii) All the appointments made prior to the enforcement of these Rules and Bye-laws shall be deemed to be valid in accordance to these Rules and Bye-laws and no alteration to the service conditions of any employee be made due to amendment to these Rules and Bye-laws. If any alteration of the service conditions of the existing employees are made, it shall be done only with the prior consent of the employee/employees concerned.

34. We, the following members of the Society/Institute, certify that the above is a correct copy of the Rules of the Institute:
